Society

Mrs. Taft was the luncheon guest of Mrs. E. D. White, wife of Chief Justice White, at the Country Club yesterday. A distinguished company of women were asked to meet the President's wife.

The French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand entertained at dinner last night, and had as their guests Mrs. Edmond, wife of the Secretary of War; the Peruvian Minister and Mme. Pezet, Major General and Mrs. Leonard Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Blanchard, Mr. Wallis, the Charge d'Affaires of Spain; Mrs. Freyre y Santander, of the Peruvian legation staff; Miss Frances Gamble, niece and house guest of Mrs. Edmond, and Mr. and Mrs. de la Roca, Capt. and Countess de Chambrun, Mr. Maugras, and Viscount de Saint Phalle, all of the Embassy staff.

Secretary of the Navy George von L. Meyer entertained at dinner last evening in honor of the officers of the German squadron, now lying at Hampton Roads. The guests were Kommodore Admiral von Reuter, Paschewitz, Korvettenkapitan Prentiss, Kapitän zur See Ritter v. Mann, Edler v. Tschier, Fregattenkapitan Seeborn, Fregattenkapitan v. Krosigk, Kapitänleutnant Klappenbach, Kapitänleutnant Kirchner, Kapitänleutnant Schimach, Kapitänleutnant Schacht, Kapitänleutnant Dums, Kapitänleutnant V. Jorck, Oberleutnant zur See Galtier, Oberleutnant zur See Andler, Oberleutnant zur See Schmitt, Oberleutnant zur See Midendorf, Oberleutnant zur See Christian Prinz von Hessen-Philippsthal-Barchfeld, Marine Oberstabsingenieur Encke, Marine Oberstabsingenieur Tolkmitt, Marine Oberstabsingenieur Grube, Marine Oberstabsarzt Dr. Auer, the Secretary of State, the Secretary of War, the Postmaster General, the German Ambassador, Rear Admiral Walnwright, Rear Admiral Vreeland, Rear Admiral Ward, Rear Admiral Badger, Rear Admiral Andrews, Rear Admiral Watt, Rear Admiral Cone, Capt. C. S. Rodgers, Capt. Potts, Maj.-Gen. Commandant Biddle, Lieut.-Col. McCawley, Commander Boy Ed, Commander Belknap, Lieut. Commander Palmer, Lieut. Commander Bricker, and Lieut. Commander Seltzer.

All eyes are now turning toward the two great conventions, and even women are taking a more active interest than they ever have before. Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, formerly Miss Alice Roosevelt, who is acquiring much enthusiasm and skill in the game of politics, is one of the first to make her arrangements for an early arrival on the scene of action in Chicago, and will go there next week. She is keenly alive to all that affects her father's affairs, and during the days when his campaign headquarters were lively here, she was kept constantly informed of every move. Since the real interest has been transferred to Chicago, she keeps in touch with it. Mrs. Longworth has had some useful experience already in the campaign of her husband for his re-election to Congress, in which he came off victorious and she is ready to lend any aid toward the success of her favorite candidate for President—her father.

Mrs. Pinchot, mother of Mr. Gifford Pinchot, who entertained a luncheon company in honor of Mrs. Champ Clark only a few days before her departure, is now in Chicago, the guest of former Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. James R. Garfield. Her brother, Mrs. Charles Broughton Wood, will join her there next week. After the convention Mrs. Wood and Mrs. Pinchot will go to the former's home, near Simsbury, Conn., where Mrs. Pinchot has been residing since before going to her own country home in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Mary Butterworth Hasleton, of California, is with her mother, Mrs. Benjamin Butterfield, at the Wyoming.

Mrs. George M. Dunn, wife of the military attaché at Rome, with their children, will leave Washington to-day and go to Boston, and they will sail to-morrow for Naples to join Col. Dunn. They will spend the summer months in the mountains of Italy.

Rear Admiral Seaton Schroeder, U. S. N., and Mrs. Schroeder and the Misses Schroeder closed their N Street residence yesterday and left for Jamestown, N. Y., where they will spend the summer months.

Capt. Harold P. Norton, U. S. N., and Mrs. Norton, will leave Washington to-day and go to Boston, and they will sail to-morrow for Naples to join Col. Dunn. They will spend the summer months in the mountains of Italy.

Mrs. Eva Whitford Lovette, of Belton, Tex., and formerly of this city, who has been spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Whitford, at their home in Eighteenth Street, will sail to-day to spend the summer in Berlin and Tyrol, where she will continue her musical study with a Berlin teacher. Mrs. Lovette is accompanied by Miss Lillie Lunwick, a Texas girl, and will remain abroad indefinitely. Dr. Lovette, who has been detained in Texas for another month, will join Mrs. Lovette in July.

Mrs. J. Charles Linthicum, wife of Representative Linthicum of Maryland, entertained a company at luncheon

Wednesday in honor of the executive board of the Woman's National Democratic League, following the first meeting. Mrs. John Sherman Crosby, president of the league, sat at the head of the table, the vice president, Mrs. Linthicum, being at her right. Mrs. Edward T. Taylor, of Colorado, chaired the meeting to order. The other members present included Mrs. William G. Sharpe, treasurer; Miss Kate K. Henry, director; Mrs. Elias Hays, historian; Mrs. Grace P. Hopkins, field secretary; Mrs. John E. Baker, of California, recording secretary, and Mrs. Stephen B. Ayres. The by-laws were adopted and arrangements made for a club play. The next meeting of the executive board will be held at the close of the Democratic national convention, when plans will be announced for the work of the league.

Miss Mary Hillieray Shreve, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel T. Shreve, of Dickerson, Md., and Joseph Henry Waters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Waters, of Washington, were married Wednesday at 4:30 o'clock, at Christ Episcopal Church, Barnesville, Md., the Rev. William R. Busby, formerly of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, officiating. The bride wore a traveling suit of brown light wool, trimmed with messaline and lace, with hat and gloves to match, and carried a bouquet of lilacs of the valley and white roses. Her only attendant was her eldest sister, Miss Edna Hammond Shreve, who wore a dress of blue nun's veiling, with picture hat, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Mildred Gertrude Shreve and Miss Susan Dawson Giddings, sister and niece of the bride and groom, respectively, were the flower girls, and carried sweet peas and roses, which they scattered in the aisle as the bride advanced to the altar of her father, who presented her in marriage.

Mr. Walter Warfield Waters was best man for his brother, while the ushers were Mr. D. Herbert Shreve, eldest brother of the bride, Mr. L. Irvin Shreve, Mr. Floyd Claes and Mr. Douglas Hudson, the last three being members of the Kappa Alpha fraternity, of which the groom is a member. Miss Julia Bell, of Dickerson, Md., played the wedding marches from "Lohengrin" and Mendelssohn, and during the ceremony the "Flower Song." The couple left later for a honeymoon trip to New York city, up the Hudson to Albany, Buffalo and Niagara Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Waters will be pleased to see their friends after July 1 at their new home, 823 Keefe Place, near Georgia Avenue Northwest.

Mrs. Richard Lee Fearn and Miss Mildred Fearn left yesterday for Mobile.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Black announce the engagement of their daughter, Agnes, to Mr. Don E. Cooke, of this city. The wedding will take place on Saturday, June 8, at the Mount Pleasant Congregational church. After the ceremony, they will spend two weeks at Ashbury Park. On their return, they will take apartments at the Rochambeau, where Mr. Cooke will practice medicine.

The marriage of Miss Laura Isabelle Yeatman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louise Yeatman, and Mr. William Cleveland Collier is announced. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, 232 Prospect Street, Tuesday, June 4.

Mrs. F. L. Rosemond, of Cambridge, Ohio, is visiting her brother, W. Edward Grimes, of Lincoln Square, and relatives at 1355 Howard Street.

Mrs. E. R. Lake, of 3033 Twentieth Street, has gone for a six-week visit to her old home in Oregon. She expects to reach Portland in time to attend the Rose Festival, and from there will go to Corvallis for the commencement exercises at the Oregon Agricultural College, with which institution Mr. Lake was formerly connected.

Mr. T. St. John Gaffney, American Consul General at Dresden, has arrived at the Cosmos Club.
